Curious, do you think rap would be better or worse today if Pac/Biggie didn't get murdered?

I think it'd be better. 2 legendary artists that would release top rap tracks. I don't see how it would go wrong.

It'd be the same, maybe conscious rap (boom bap/90's) genre would be a bit more popular/hot, but Atlanta trap would still be poppin since Migos would pop up, mumble rap as well
