Hello,

So this the way i do things, starting with a sketch - Line art - base color - then i start adding my touches left and right :p

Ayy this is very cool! I love the way you presented the piece, all of the steps. Was it a custom design for a logo or just messing around?

I would love to see more of your work if possible.

edit: I saw that it was an entry for a best logo contest. Good luck with that, grab the $$:D

Very nicely done, I liked Orange one the most rather than the completed version.
