Any suggestions?

Really loved that movie. Surprised it did not win more awards.

Do you have a link to this movie?

Only saw it once and I have no clue where I saw it.

It was taken off Netflix, but an amazing movie nevertheless.

Catch me if you can, boiler room, the big short, although the last one isn't as dramatic.

I heard good things about the boiler room. Is it more focused on the partying and stuff, or the stocks etc? Same question for catch me if you can :)

Depends what part of the movie you are after. The whole partying, snorting coke and fking around type ? or getting rich from nothing type movie?

The Big Short is an awesome movie if you haven't seen it.
