Thread: [\[LIMITED COPIES\] \[\$250+/DAY GUARANTEED\] Private Earnings Method \[PROOF INCLUDED\]](#)

Nike+ - December 22, 2018, 12:51 pm

Hello hack-forums community, I have something very special to offer today. Let's not waste anytime and get straight to business. Early in 2018, I came across a method that was completely untapped and had the potential of profiting hundreds daily. So I decided to privately work on improving and automating the method for months on end. After finally reaching my final version of the method just 2 months back, I have began to start profiting thousands monthly with almost no work. The method is now capable of profiting well over $250+ daily without any issue. Now that I have settled with the method, I would like to give exclusive access to 10 members who would also like to join this venture.

The method is 100% whitehat and can be executed by following a few simple steps. There are absolutely no requirements or skills needed to get profiting. Payouts can be received via Paypal, Bank transfer, or Bitcoin. Setup is very straightforward and consists of a few simple instructions that is all very clearly laid out. I also will offer an additional package where I setup alongside you almost like a mentoring process. Earnings are 100% guaranteed and this method can't be saturated. Look forward to gifting a few members an opportunity of a lifetime.

Thanks for bringing this up to my attention. It does not involve any of the following you've mentioned, I would personally consider those as low quality/public methods (and I'm sure many would agree with me).

The method at its base will earn you $250/day atleast. It can be scaled to well over $400+/day though, I've hit some really strong days recently! It's very easy and straightforward to setup, no guessing or creativity involved. Also once the method is setup you're only going to be spending 5-10 mins per day on it, almost no work is involved.

(Dec 23, 2018 04:27 PM)Dankdood Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) btw, have you given out any vouches for review? I haven't handed out any vouch copies simply because I don't believe in having a skewed review that isn't legitimate. Most of these "vouch copy reviewers" are friends of sellers who claim the method is unbelievable when they haven't even tried it. Additionally I also value my method and only want it in the hands of customers who have actually made the leap and paid. I am no rush to make any sales and would rather have legitimate customers leaving honest reviews. Hope that explains the situation. We are starting to see some customers now and I've been contacted by several interested members so expect reviews shortly!

The method does not involve reselling or any sort of real life work. It only takes about an hour setup and you can expect to earn $50-200 right off your first day. The method works worldwide flawlessly.

Firstly, I wish you luck & success in your sales.

But I partly differ on your views about vouch reviews. Yes, most of them may "tag & bring" along their friend as you put it but most often, the community would prefer seeing a review from a reputable member of the community. Someone whose name resonates within the community.

And in saying that, "Theocritus & The Appraisal Team" comes to mind. They are not associated/affiliated with anyone. I am genuinely interested in how your purchasers review it but seeing most of them are just newly created accounts doesn't give very good credibility to what is possible with your methods. If you can screenshare your earnings live, I'd be interested to see it. So please drop me a PM.

Regards, Wolf ?

Nobody is going to leave an honest review about this method? Then I should and here it goes:

I bought this method thinking that there will be no way you can make $250 in a day doing 5-10 minutes of work. Yes, it was too good to be true. But I thought, "why not?" to see what he had to offer. Well, guess what. It was all bullshit like any of the HF books that you see this day (except maybe 1 or 2 but still). OP stated that the method does NOT include saturated materials and a few others that some users posted about asking if it's related to some sort of___ (fill in the blank). In fact, he's selling stuff that's already known. This is not a sales-trashing but a honest review so many other users don't get caught up with this bait. Also, after he sent the reviews, there was not much of a 'support' and his response time to me has been slower since after I paid. His excuse was 'he went to go eat dinner' right after I paid and 5 minutes later he did and came back 10-15 minutes later; in which I smell BS.

Everything in this method is saturated and the buyers here are most likely fake (as I know the method is saturated). All I asked OP was if he can simply give me my money back because of false-advertising but of course, he says "A report is not valid without a contact unfortunately". Don't buy this without a contract. I'm simply stating the truth. A $100 loss is a loss and it won't affect me much. But for those that don't have much, save yourself the money and invest in yourself. I'm just trying to help out.

So far I've had the method for less than 24 hours and have already made $80+ profit.
You can't just expect to earn money right away because it says what you can earn. You actually have to put some time into what you're doing if you want to see results.

Yup, I took one for the team. Plus, some will do their best to sound very professional and smart. Don't get me wrong, some HF members here are very intelligent young lads who know what they do. However, some lads will type and speak to you in a very professional/intelligent way so that it will make you think "oh, this guy seems smart. I should trust him" kind of mentality. Don't fall for it. I'm only leaving my honest review. If you see other members posting about vouches of earnings, that's because it wasn't _____. I can't say, but if you're curious, PM me and no, I'm not sharing the method.

How many HF accounts have you accumulated since your old one got exposed?

Seriously, don't waste a single cent on this multi. He just sells you bs blackhat methods that been around for ages.

Also. Come up with a new thread design. You keep exposing yourself too fast ?

Delson - December 28, 2018, 10:36 am

OP is a scammer thru and thru. He sends you a bunch of rehashed ebooks and "his" method that involves twitch.

You need him to send you additional files for this method to "work" and the he stops responding.

Avoid at all costs.
