Thread: -----Food Sub-Forum----- \(Last suggested in 2015!\)

Nyx - December 22, 2018, 11:05 pm

I think we should implement a food sub-forum for all the foodies out there that enjoy either taking pictures of meals they have cooked or taking pictures of food they have eaten for whatever the reason may be. I know it was suggested many times and many moons ago (back in 2015) and in the most recent thread someone quoted Omniscient saying, "not yet". Now I have no idea if that is in correlation to the suggestion or someone quoting him for another reason; Be whatever reason it was, I do think that enough time has passed for this suggestion.

I personally love taking pictures ranging from Luxurious Steaks, Mouth Watering Seafood, to just your. Perfectly well crafted Juicy Burger.

Now, back when the last time it was suggested, people were making comments such as' "Members on HF are broke and poor and only eat pizza and ramen;" even if those mundane assumptions were true, Who is to say the one time they do eat something "different", they will not want to post it?

Ladies and Gentlemen,

My suggestion has been submitted.

Thank you all for your time and patience reading my tedious thread. ?

TLDR: MAKE THE FOOD SUB-FORUM!

Ah, I see it has already been done.

I cannot believe I never noticed this sub forum before. Shows you how little I browse new and undiscovered territory on HF.

I tend to stick to the same sections.

Well I wasted a good 3 minutes writing a lengthy tangent on my phone at 2:05 in the morning!
