Thread: Attempting To Contact Staff

6ing - December 23, 2018, 6:16 pm

Hello. I know that it is against the rules to have multiple accounts, but I am doing this in an attempt to contact staff. I am attempting to get back into my old account, ciNGi? . I can't login because of my old gauth. I no longer have the phone I used for it. I also can't pm due to 25 posts and I'd rather not go through that in order to get an old account banned. Just trying my best to play by rules and get my old account back.

You can no longer recover accounts that you have lost. Sorry.

Does this include my situation with just needing guath removed?

He might be nice since it's the holidays and get it back for you. Who knows, you could be fucked. Wait for staff to reply.

Do you have your recovery code?

If not, then I think you're out of luck

I no longer have the phone I used to use my gauth through... So I doubt it.
