That's why you should redeem it over a screen share program and record it for proof. If he sends the code and you receive it and redeem it all over video and it doesn't work it is 100% prove able that it did/didn't work.

Damn sorry for your loss. What did he say when you told him it doesnt work

If you dont bother to PM me how can i sort this out? I note down gift cards and i may have accidentally redeemed yours, i found the code in our PMs and it matches the one redeemed in my account. Send me your BTC address, my account is worth much more than £40 lol.

UPDATE: I should have PMed Speclizer because mistakes do happen, i had just checked the code right before making this post so i was pissed and thought i had been fucked over. Speclizer is making it right and sending BTC now and ill update once received. I just couldn't see why it would have been redeemed but makes sense if you save all codes immediately.
