Contract violator + Leaker: RBH

UID = 69855

Profile = <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=69855>

Leak receiver (influenced the leak): Surmise

UID = 3857484

Profile = <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3857484>

So this member "RBH" had recently purchased my method and everything seemed to be going great, unfortunately the member didn't like a few things due to his circumstances so out of good will I decided I would work out a full refund for him. Instead of waiting for me to process the refund, this member decided to begin spamming my thread and customers to cause a problem. This was no big deal to me as I am not concerned about sales.

A little while later, I received a message from an interested customer and after talking for a bit he brings up RBH. He proceeds to tell me that the member has been telling him a bunch of non-sense but won't leak the method info. After he said this I knew the method was leaked 100%. About 5 minutes of discussing the member Surmise sends me a picture of my conversation with RBH containing important segments of the method. This confirmed that RBH was leaking my method to a potential customer.

As soon as I explain to Surmise that he is partaking in method leaking he turns the tables and says the following:

Now RBH is making desperate claims that my method breaks TOS etc just to hold an excuse for a refund. I have NOT placed a refund policy on the thread or contract which means there is no refund option. I was fine with refunding this member but after he leaked my method there will be absolutely no refund.

Surmise - December 26, 2018, 6:39 pm

First off, you're falsely advertising your product. You claim that it's automated and legal while in fact the method itself is 'selling a service' and involves black hat activity.

I was interested in buying your product until I looked at the replies and saw that a buyer of yours stated they were opening a deal dispute and that you were ignoring him. I added you on Skype and contacted him at the same time, like most "Money Making Guides" on Hack Forums I figured this was bull shit anyways but I wanted to do my research just in case.

From the screenshots below you can clearly see that RBH and I had no intent to leak your book.

Nike+ was blatantly ignoring his own customer after they asked for a refund, this sketched me out so I decided not to buy the product. I sent him the screenshot that RBH requested me to send, sort of being the middle man trying to solve their issues.

You can see that RBH tried to cover up any information related to the method but failed to cover up the last comment about the "Twitch Bot". Now that this happened Nike+ is using it as his excuse to not refund RBH. Even though it literally reveals nothing.. It doesn't give away the method or any of the steps, only the site that it's related to. This member is just sketchy period.

DO NOT DEAL WITH.

"Using this excuse to not refund" what do you mean LOL there is no refund policy i dont need an excuse to not refund. I am just warning the community of you 2 sketchy members.

That's the funny part, he sent me a screenshot with blurred out information but forgot to blur one segment that stated it was related to Twitch. This is not leaking your method, you must be missing a couple of chromosomes.

It's great to see you putting on an act for the forum. Let's not forget how you were talking on skype. "Your dispute will go to shit I have more rep"

If it was a minor piece I wouldn't bother posting a dispute, even I share minor info with interest customers. But he leaked the method and you accepted it and still are.

You can clearly see that from the screenshots and he did not leak your method, he leaked one minor detail that doesn't play into anything. There's no point in me further replying, anyone with half a brain that's seen both this dispute and RBH's will be able to put two and two together and realize that you're just using this as a cop out to not refund your customer.

You claimed you would refund RBH, after you failed to provide the complete method and finish helping him with the set-up. Then intentionally started ignoring him while trying to make another sale. I brought up the fact that you have a low b-rating because it looks like you're just trying to scam to make a couple hundred then dip.

I'll leave the rest of this to the community.

Seems like you know a whole lot about RBH's side of the story ?

So a few things.

1. The words "Twitch bot" isn't leaking your shit eBook. In no way does that allow a member to fully know what the method is and what to do with it.
2. Surmise shouldn't be involved in this at all, it's not his fault he was told the method and he's not "partaking in method leaking", especially since he's not a fucking customer of yours (thank god)
3. You claim "Any illegal content such as scamming" and "The method is 100% whitehat"
The method is blackhat as fuck. Autodesk can and WILL try to sue you for selling their products on Ebay/any other place. Twitch services/botting is also greyhat at the very least. Paxful is full of scammers and carders so anything you do on there is probably greyhat at best as well.
4. How do I know the methods listed above are what you're selling? Funny enough, you're reselling a ebook I purchased 6 months ago

A customer of yours was nice enough to verify that it's the exact same eBook that you're selling, but yours has the contact info removed and a different title.
Before you say anything, I can't leak your eBook if I never bought it :)

Seems like you're just upset someone is speaking out against your shitty, public, and illegal ebook. Stay mad fam

When I was reading the OP I definitely was siding with him because his side of the story does seem shitty. Then after reading Sumrise's post and this, I'm very glad the other side of the story is being told because wow that changed it all for me ?

Ofcourse this is a reason, you are selling blackhat methods while saying it is whitehat. You need to refund me because the method isn't as described, you were lying.

Just to confirm again, this is indeed the file which was also in his method pack.

You sell a low quality method and do false advertising, you got what you deserve ...

You must even be banned from here and bring to a small court

This is the best community alert I've seen in a while. OP, you're shit. Gtfo with that shit. I hope you do the right thing and refund RBH.
