New Years Eve Special

Order Before Midnight EST and Get 50% Off Using Coupon: HF50OFF

Hey guys,

I'm not going to have a fancy sales thread or anything, I'm not going to be secretive about what I'm offering.

I'm going to tell you straight up, then you decide if it's for you.

But first... Are you interested in seeing daily results like this?

Or this..

Then listen up, because you're going to want to get in on this quickly.

I am going to take you by the hand and show you how to earn between $50-$100 day (sometimes a little more, sometimes a little less) from Adsense.

It doesn't matter if you have no experience or don't even know what adsense is. I cover that all in this course.

I'm limiting this to 25 people.

There is little chance of this getting saturated, but I want to be safe, just in case.

I've been earning using this adsense secret for about 4 months and I've gotten money in the bank...

So I know for sure, this is well worth much much more than I'm charging for it.

The cost?

$97.

Again, this is limited to ONLY 25.

Also, note .. there is investment.

Depending on if you want to build your blog yourself or outsource it ($35). And if you need to purchase a non-hosted adsense Account ($50) $50 - $100 a day would need quite a lot of traffic ~60k-100k give or take. Sounds interesting, but at that price are you offering some sort of vouch experience?

Hi, not at the moment.. I provided some vouch copies already. Waiting for reviews to come in. But can offer discounted copies.. 50% off until then.

Also you don't need that much traffic.. You need high cpc keywords and targeted traffic. You can get $1-$5 per click.

wecanbothwin - December 29, 2018, 7:42 am

Vouch copies available.. for reputable members.

I can second this. The niche OP provides you with is extremely profitable in every aspect of internet marketing. I can give you a hint Niche is one of the top 3 CPA paying offers and it's not the Adult one.

Got a vouch copy and this seems pretty straight-forward, OP got you covered from start to finish. I'm not type of a guy who writes long reviews but from what I can tell this works if you follow his instructions. There are plenty of screenshots to follow as well so the entire process is easy to do!

I'm interested but this comment is not water proof.

"and you don't earn,"

Does that means that if i earn $1 i will not get a refund?

Haha, I see that now. If you do not earn at least your money back.. in 30 days. I will provide a refund. But you must show that you followed the instructions I provide, if you try to get fancy and make changes, I'm not responsible.

Hi,

Requires some investment?

How much time will take setup everything and start earning?

Already have a site approved for AdSense, can work with it or its the same?

Works worldwide? Not from US/CA/EU.

Thanks

Hi, does require some investment. You can use your site, but depending on what keywords it's optimized for, you may not get the same return.

I show you an easy way to get high cpc keywords and where to get a ablig built for you that is optimized for clicks... will cost around $35. Then $5 a day for traffic (not fb).

The only other investment would be to buy an adsense account but sounds like you have that covered.

I got vouch copy, here's what I have to say about it:

- After first read I got feeling that this guide seems very believable and doable.

- Method requires a lot of investment ($100+ for sure) and will take you some time to set it up, it wont be easy, but it's worth it (I think)

- Ebook is full of information and straight forward, that's what I like about it

If everything works out as it should I will be posting payment information soon, good luck with sales

Hi, thanks for the honest review. Sincerely appreciate it. And to clarify costs.. it really depends. If you already have an adsense acct, it will cut your startup costs in half (it's $50 to purchase one, but maybe you can find it cheaper), you can build your own blog, but I don't recommend it (will cost $35ish). Then $5/day in ad spend (not fb). The set up time is a little bit of kw research, then mostly waiting. Once you're up, you'll see $$$ almost immediately.

If anyone has any questions, let me know

Paypal? Risk banning adsense? Is it scaleable?

Oagen - December 29, 2018, 9:00 pm

If this is an arbitrage method, have you experienced any "clawback" from Google? Often their "estimated earnings" ends up being quite a lot less once it's pay-day, because they correct for clicks that they don't want to pay for (bots, ads overlaying text too much, and for pages set up just to get adsense earnings).

Hi, yes, it is arbitrage. And google can be an a-hole sometimes and definitely experience some "clawback".. but not really more than 5-10%.. still plenty of profit. The traffic is legit, so no worries there.

No time. Once your set up, it runs on autopilot. You could be fully set up in a few days, mostly waiting for things to get done for you. Your blog (I show you where to outsource) , your adsense acct (I show you where to purchase if you don't have.)

Definitely not microworkers... It's a legit ad network that I found and has excellent traffic. Real visitors. I cannot however divulge my traffic source as that is part of what makes this method so valuable to me.

Was interested in getting started with adsense , so this so thought I'd give it go. So far OP has been very helpful answering all of my questions and is quite friendly. I've been through the guide (it's short), It's very well written, clear and concise. It's very doable and shouldn't take long to implement.. I can see how this will be complete autopilot once it's set up properly. I will follow up once I see results.

Before I begin my review, I would like to thank you for giving us ("Appraisers"), the opportunity to review your eBook.

Product: [\[50% Off til Midnight\] Make \$50-\$100 per day from Adsense - Guaranteed.](#) by " wecanbothwin"

This eBook consist of 1 method and 7 pages.

The grammar in this eBook is overall fine, and there are not many errors within it. The structure is very plain, but it is easily enough understood as is.

Now as OP clearly states, this eBook is all about making money from AdSense. This method is straightforward, and as OP states you should get most of the things ready in a few hours, though it could take a week or even more for everything to be approved, depending. Once you have everything approved and ready, you will start to slowly earn money with the step by step method included here in this eBook. As OP states, you may not get that much in the beginning but it will slowly climb, and you can get decent profits over time.

From what I have seen as well this method should not break Google's TOS, but I am not 100% sure on that so you should verify it on your end as well. OP includes multiple helpful tips on how to avoid issues and general trouble using AdSense, which is neat. There are few screenshots included in this eBook, and there could frankly have been more, but there are at least one or two which help you with one specific step.

When it comes to the originality of this method I can say that it's not 100% new. Yes, I have seen a version or two of this method before, but this method is not a straight up copy of those methods. I think this method has some original information in it and I have not seen an utterly identical method in the HF marketplace before personally.

When it comes to the value proposition of this eBook, I have a few thoughts. OP does provide useful information on where exactly you can get everything you need, including any outsourcing work if needed. OP has a generally easy to follow step by step guide and shares a lot of practical information along the way. The method is not 100% new though, so I can't give it bonus points for that. Personally, this method is probably something I would charge max $50 for. Now, this is not to say that the $100 price tag is way too high necessarily, but it is higher than what I would have prized it at myself nonetheless.

As OP states in the sales thread, I would also recommend you have some extra money to invest in this method if you are to buy it. I would personally recommend $100 extra for any potential early investments including outscoring, an account if needed, etc. you may need more than this, but $100 should get you a long way overall.

When it comes to the payouts here, they can take a while. I believe Google pays out every 30 days via AdSense, but it has been so long since I got an AdSense payout, I could be wrong. You will have to confirm your address though to get your first payout at all, and that may take only a week but could also take over a month, as you will get a verification code shipped to you. You may also be unlucky, and it can then take extra time. You should, however, be able to keep earning while you are waiting for that verification code, so it should not overall impact your potential earnings.

When it comes to this method, I have seen similar things work decently well in the past, and I see no real reason why this cannot work decently as well. There could always arise issues of course, but I don't see too many of them coming up in regards to this method.

I will say that the eBook doesn't cover everything in the best detail, so I am sure some people would want/need to ask OP about a thing here or there. OP does repeatedly mention that if anyone is wondering about anything, they can contact him for any help they would need. Though I have not tried OP's support, I would hope he will provide proper advice if required.

When it comes to earning $50-$100 a day, sure that is something that is possible. But at the same time, I think it will take you at least a fair bit of time to reach any number around that height. If you are thinking that you will start earning that amount on day one, week one or even month one then you have no guarantees of that. Over time though it is very possible if it works without issues. There is also a good autopilot feel to this method as you should not need to do much work at all once it is set up initially.

Final Thoughts

To me, this seems like a decent eBook with a simple method and a simple step by step guide overall. The pricing for it is a bit higher than I would have liked personally, but it is not outrageous for the current price, though I do think that you will find more valuable eBooks for the same total than this one. If you are a person with an already established AdSense or you are just really interested in AdSense otherwise, then this eBook might be for you. But for the average joe that is just looking for any online money making methods then I don't think this has the best value for the price. But if you are one of those people interested in AdSense methods and you have at least $200 to burn, then this is not the worst option on the market.

I would personally recommend $100 extra for any potential early investments including outsourcing, an account if needed, etc. you may need more than this, but $100 should get you a long way overall.

When it comes to the payouts here, they can take a while. I believe Google pays out every 30 days via AdSense, but it has been so long since I got an AdSense payout, I could be wrong. You will have to confirm your address though to get your first payout at all, and that may take only a week but could also take over a month, as you will get a verification code shipped to you. You may also be unlucky, and it can then take extra time. You should, however, be able to keep earning while you are waiting for that verification code, so it should not overall impact your potential earnings.

When it comes to this method, I have seen similar things work decently well In the past, and I see no real reason why this cannot work decently as well. There could always arise issues of course, but I don't see too many of them coming up in regards to this method.

I will say that the eBook doesn't cover everything in the best detail, so I am sure some people would want/need to ask OP about a thing here or there. OP does repeatedly mention that if anyone is wondering about anything, they can contact him for any help they would need. Though I have not tried OPs support, I would hope he will provide proper advice if required.

When it comes to earning $50-$100 a day, sure that is something that is possible. But at the same time, I think it will take you at least a fair bit of time to reach any number around that height. If you are thinking that you will start earning that amount on day one, week one or even month one then you have no guarantees of that. Over time though it is very possible if it works without issues. There is also a good autopilot feel to this method as you should not need to do much work at all once it is set up initially.

Final Thoughts

To me, this seems like a decent eBook with a simple method and a simple step by step guide overall. The pricing for it is a bit higher than I would have liked personally, but it is not outrageous for the current price, though I do think that you will find more valuable eBooks for the same total than this one. If you are a person with an already established AdSense or you are just really interested in AdSense otherwise, then this eBook might be for you. But for the average joe that is just looking for any online money making methods then I don't think this has the best value for the price. But if you are one of those people interested in AdSense methods and you have at least $200 to burn, then this is not the worst option on the market.

Thank you for the honest review!

A couple quick comments on your notes.

- 1) price: I have permanently lowered the price to under $50 with the discount.
- 2) the key here is my traffic source. While I show how to create a high cpc optimized for adsense site, my traffic source sends such high quality, targeted traffic that when used correctly, the earnings are pretty immediate. I have a few people implementing now and they will follow up with results.

I will give one more review copy to anyone that promises to take action ASAP. :-)

Currently making 12K-20K a month with adsense. Will this method put my account in danger?

I don't see a reason why it would, but I won't be held responsible. Working with adsense, i've learned that they can be finicky and decide to shut you down for no reason. I had an account on a blog with about 50k - 60k visitors a month - 100% organic, legit traffic. not an ounce of funny stuff and they suspended my account. haha.

So, my advice to you - as much as I'd like to sell you this course - is that if you are making 20k/mo keep doing more of what you're doing and don't rock the boat.

is this paying for traffic/clicks?

Demonata - January 15, 2019, 3:06 pm

I got banned on adsense. Is there anyway i can still use it ?

"Depending on if you want to build your blog yourself or outsource it ($35). And if you need to purchase a non-hosted adsense Account ($50)" will you be providing the blog and adsense account?

Yes, no problem. I tell you where to get an adsense account

Any proof of earnings with this?

bladyy - January 16, 2019, 4:31 am

I have bought this method and so far it's been totally dogshit.

The website the OP told me to buy the AdSense pre-approved account from is literally a scam and they scammed me for $50.

I've asked the OP for a refund or I will have to open a deal dispute. The method is total crap.

I get it, really. The guy is legit.. and I will make sure that he sets you up, i've already contacted him. It's not fair to say the method is crap because you're having issues with a vendor I sent you to.

Yes, ultimately it's my responsibility and that's why I'm going to personally reach out to make sure he gets you set up. I honestly wish you would have reached out sooner for assistance instead of waiting two weeks. If he doesn't (he will), then of course I will refund you. you're frustrated, and rightly so (i would be too) but that doesn't make this method garbage. I will follow up.

Appreciate your patience.

This looks interesting. Any current payment proof from Adsense?

hartzlead - January 21, 2019, 2:06 pm

Now going into 5th day of waiting for approval with the suggested traffic provider. They dont respond to support emails. I've sent them over 4 support emails to date with not a single response. Basically the worst traffic provider I've ever dealt with to this point. Literally getting ready to contact my bank to reverse my payment.
