Thread: New Years Eve Bytes Special

Omniscient - December 30, 2018, 11:34 am

I am direct selling Bytes in bulk for the next 4 hours only.

100k ? = $1400 (Bonus: Grand Amethyst award + custom award of my choice)

50k ? = $750 (Bonus: Master Donator award + custom award of my choice)

Please note this is VERY limited time only for the next 4 hours. Tomorrow the ? price of Crews will be increased. So this could be your last chance to grab an HF Cartel at these prices.

PM me for a direct BTC/ETH address for payment.

Thank you.

Wow never thought bytes would be sold by you. Wonder how many crews are going to pop up from this.

Roytoy - December 30, 2018, 11:40 am

A rare discontinued award plus a surprise award and 100k bytes for $1.4k. Sounds like a good deal.

I did this before same rates a few months ago. Not the first time I'll sell bulk Bytes or the last. What I haven't done is sell them cheap or in small quantities. Had a lot of members try to get 10k or 25k from me at reduced rates but I turn them away and tell them to use the Marketplace.

I looked and our total ? is at a very reasonable 2.4m for the community. So that means our Bytes economy is stable. When crew prices go up and I continue to raise fees and other Byte prices their value to the community should be maintained.

Too bad I don't have enough money now.. I would have bought the 50k for the awards xD.

Banter. - December 30, 2018, 12:32 pm

This is great, i would 100% be having this if xmas did not bleed me dry.

i hope to see some more crews pop up from this the 100k Package is a steal the GA alone was $1000 before it was DC'd.

get your crews open and let the games begin soon guys!

If anyone is short and wants to go half on a lifetime crew, message me ASAP.

Pain - December 30, 2018, 12:37 pm

Wow that is a pretty nice deal going to do some research on crews, as I am not fully aware on what they actually do and if it is profitable.

With the half half who would get the GA Award?

That doesn't matter. I'm just worried about getting a crew before the price hike. If interested, message me directly and we'll work something out.

I suppose it might help members if they knew my planned price increase for the Crews. I will set the Cartel Crew price to 150,000 ? from 100k.

We are actively developing the game now and I suspect Crews will be very important to the gaming aspect in about 2-3 months. We should have working game code in 2-3 weeks as part of HF.

Out of curiosity, will (Tier 3) Crews be transferrable at some point, or will it stay with the member who bought the Crew?

Basically Crews have owners (like groups) and having a group move to a new owner is easily done. I thought it was already a feature but I see it's not. We will be adding it.
