Thread: 100% of Ebook on HF = BULLSHIT , vouches are fake lekumadeskre - December 30, 2018, 1:37 pm

I find some method that have 4-5 thread rating , and a lot of vouches from reputable member
I bought some of them and I got saturated / well known methods

So it seem that the vouches are totally fake, or at least bought or exchanged

People that leave vouches without trying the method must be banned

Im fed up to see everytime " vouch for this guy, he know his shit" " I worked with him on the past ,vouch for him" , this kind of vouches are worst, people that do this vouches must be banned forever

Can vouch, Aspire is the fucking plug!

LoudScreen - December 30, 2018, 9:16 pm

In fact his method is so good he is selling it now and it actually made him 20-25k in just one month only!

Just go hurry and check on his profile before he decides that his time is better spent somewhere else!

This is an opportunity you can not pass!

I trust Theocritus reviews, 90% of the time they will be negative so I assume that when they are positive, they are positive because the product is worth it.

Vouch for OP. He knows his shit.

This is correct.

Wow, it's almost as if people lie to get ahead in life. Interesting!

Bill Gates - December 31, 2018, 1:31 am

OP is spitting truth and hate at all these scummy EBook sellers.

I endorse this type of thinking.

Juice. - December 31, 2018, 9:10 am

Haha, everyone vouching at the beginning made me think of this being a Reddit post.

Anyways, it is sad that there are PLENTY of these threads posted here and lots of issues revolving around the sellers, yet people keep buying them.

QuickYT - December 31, 2018, 10:12 am

You might as well find another forum to buy from. You're not going to get any value from here.

No matter how good their profile looks. No matter how many vouchers the thread has. HF's "Make Money" marketplace is just a scam that'll never be fixed.

Yeah, I've seen maybe 2 or 3 GOOD eBook's on here. It's easy to tell when one is good, just look for actual customers vouching and not the same people sucking each other off in their threads, or the owner bumping every day and nothing else.

Start your own hustle plan.

stop it in your head that nobody wants to share their own money income.

Mr Professor - January 6, 2019, 10:35 pm

If you purchase ebooks, I suggest you look at:

- 1) The seller. Does he do what he preaches? Make sure to communicate with the seller before purchasing the ebook. Some sellers are outright selfish assholes who don't give 2 fucks if you are going to make money or not.
- 2) Ask what the method is about. If the seller says "secret", it's probably some recycled bullshit from 2006.
- 3) Look at the testimonials. Contact some of the people who left the review and ask about their opinion.
- 4) See if the seller is constantly trying to sell you his ebook or is he trying to see if you are a good fit for the method and then give an honest recommendation about whether to purchase the ebook or not.

Harsh truth but many sellers make money by selling ebooks and never made a dime with the method they're selling, so look out for those people.

I have been on HF for a long time now and your claim about many bullshit ebooks is 100% correct. Use my tips which I shared above and you can find someone trustable. But honestly, if you have bought many ebooks, you will realize that it's not the "secret" method which will make you money.

BUT, your work ethic, skills, and patience are what is going to make you money.

exactly,
when I tell customers it's not for them I usually get a whole message telling me how nice it is of me to tell them.

I just call it proper manners.

I feel like the eBooks MAY help someone who has no, or very little idea of the topic they are wishing to broaden their horizons on. I feel like the how-to e books just put a lot of different tools and methods together to allow the highest potential for earnings, when used in way the e-book instructs. If you think about it, its twisted exploiting a hackers fiendlike obsession with cyber esotericism then to sprinkle potential above average monetary earnings on top of all of it. It can be really hard to resist, I can imagine. I personally have witnessed first hand similar schemes being meticulously constructed and advertised to a specific market and when you push all the right buttons in someone's head they will EAT whatever you give them up no questions asked. Then thank you like you was the pope kissing their baby at the end of the day. At the end of the day if u have a moderate understanding on what your tryin to achieve due to practical application and practice I'm sure you wouldn't gain anything form a majority of the products being sold by these guys. I agree as well I feel there may be a small circle of humans using this entire website as front pushing each others "miracle get rich when you do this" guides. Then at the end of the day they all split the loot. I cant imagine how many dumb motherfuckers stumble upon this while looking for ways to make extra cash. See the big colorful post and and the "vouches" that are really just a big ole pictures of "vouches" from this guy and that guy usually 1-3 hours apart back to back. Idk they Probably make a good chunk of Money off them sorry folks.

B FOR BADASS - January 13, 2019, 8:14 pm

I know Vyrez got closed because of fake vouches. Not all sellers are fake. You have to read the info on thread carefully.

Just never make sense, personally its a waste of time and money, dont bother. HF is only good for buying tools and not all work as you think.

I vouch for OP. High quality fast response. Overall good feedback. 10/10 recommend!

LoveOverFear - January 14, 2019, 2:14 pm

I would say 97% of them are fake with a 3% of getting something worth it. The ratio is awful but you gotta know your peeps.

Unless you have purchased 100% of the ebooks here then this is speculation. Even then, it's all relative.

Yeah, maybe most of them sucks. However, you can learn a lot even from the non-working methods.

BTC - April 7, 2019, 5:50 pm

The "vouches" people have should not have any factor to play in whether you are scammed or not. Vouches are good, but at the end of the day I don't care how many vouches you got. If we ain't done business before or got no trust built, idk you, and I'm gonna request a middleman.

if the ebook seller don't have at least one middleman they trust and I trust, it ain't worth buying in my opinion/

A lot of unprofessional vouchers here true ...

SIM-82498 - April 7, 2019, 5:57 pm

a woke ebook method free of charge (stripped down, pm for full version):

- step 1: upgrade ur account to premium to post in the applicable sections
- step 2: copy an existing (yet also non-working) moneymaking method and paraphrase it
 - you may also just outright copy the book without paraphrasing, makes the method easier but you're at risk of getting called out (still makes money tho!!)
- step 3: pay an amateur designer to create some product gfx filled with marketing jargon
- step 4: create a sales thread and be sure to let all your HF friends know about it so they can say some generic ass shit that makes u look good
- step 4a (optional): join one of the many organized sales rings on hf to increase exposure
- step 5: ignore all support requests cuz ur obscure and non-binding ToS allows u to
