Thread: You Have 21 more minutes...

?-Elision- - January 3, 2019, 10:16 am before you die...forever(obviously).

What would you do?

Not to save yourself,because that ain't happening.
How would you spend those last 21 minutes of your life?

NLSProductions - January 3, 2019, 10:19 am

I would call my family and friends that meant everything to me and let them know they are loved and will always be loved.

Then I would spend my final few minutes with the women I promised to spend my life with making sure she knows I meant what I said and even when I am gone that will never change

Bob White - January 3, 2019, 10:19 am

Shooting heroin, go out with the warmest blanket ever.

Sombre - January 3, 2019, 10:21 am

Call family and friends and say my goodbyes.

Oran2009 - January 3, 2019, 10:23 am

I would say my goodbyes... and then sell everything I have and give it away.

Crypt - January 3, 2019, 10:24 am

There's not much to do in 21 minutes besides say your goodbyes.

Banter. - January 3, 2019, 10:41 am

Are we at home ? what if i am driving and i am 21+ minutes away from home + how would be know we have 21 minutes ? giving the period of time and me not knowing were i would be in that moment of time i cant say because each scenario plays out different.

not knowing you have 21 minutes would equal to any person just carrying out the task they are doing as normal at the moment in time so unless you somehow knew you had 21 minutes to live i am sure everyone would be just carry on as normal. IF i knew somehow i had 21 minutes and lets be honest you would be better knowing in advance you could plan something but having a bomb shell dropped on you like that would lead more towards Panic and fear so a normal person would waste at least half there time on fear alone, a priority would be say goodbye to my family.

so to everyone saying id do mass drugs etc its very unlikely, lets face it you all would shit on yourself as would i pms - January 3, 2019, 10:49 am

Probably tell my mom that i love her, then i'd try to kill myself because i dont think i could handle the press.

Bacardi Cola Lime - January 3, 2019, 11:50 am

Probably call my family, put some music, down some whiskey and smoke as many cigarettes as I could.

nassypoo - January 3, 2019, 11:51 am

Smoke this bowl and make some phone calls maybe withdraw my crypto and money from draftkings so I can at least feel semi wealthy for last 2 minutes I have left lol.

Buzzdrone - January 3, 2019, 3:03 pm

Omniscient - January 3, 2019, 3:31 pm

Stand outside for fresh air. Light a cigar, poor some Scotch, and enjoy what's left of my time. I would reflect on my life and remember the best moments.

Business - January 3, 2019, 3:35 pm

Smoke the rest of my bud and tell everyone I care about I love them. Send all my $$ to them as well. Give my baby bro my PC, etc. Mainly taking care of those I love as much as I can before I'm gone.

RolexCollector - January 3, 2019, 4:26 pm

I would grab my wife and go towards my parents to then tell them everything that they should tell other people from me after i passed away, i will also apologize for anything messy i've ever done and i would ask them to forgive me and make it very clear that i love each one of them.

I would then give my wife a piece of paper with all passwords and leads to valueable assets that i own such as cryptocurrencies wallets and such and guidance that will help her to liquid everything into real life cash safely.

Elysium - January 3, 2019, 4:55 pm

21 minutes is not a whole lot of time. I'd try to tell as many family members and friends that I loved them. For the final few minutes I would like to give my wife and daughter a hug and tell them how important they are to me.

?ystem - January 3, 2019, 8:25 pm

Well it's too short a time to do much that I'd like physically so I would spend it with the woman I love, and reminding her that it has never faded or been questioned. That she is my one and only. I don't think I'd have one last drink or anything. I'd make my last few moments count.

Fein - January 3, 2019, 8:30 pm

I would tell my girlfriend I love her, including my family. I would then proceed to overdose on heroin as that last 21 minutes would be an inevitable death. I already have a will written out in-case something happens to me, so that will be sorted out.

Cool - January 3, 2019, 9:34 pm

Too much death related thread lately, is it because January has the most suicides?

21 minutes is not much, I would try to stop time.

Mix - January 3, 2019, 9:47 pm

Go and tell my misses I love her, and give the children the best 15 minutes I can wanderer100 - January 3, 2019, 9:49 pm

Shuxas - January 3, 2019, 9:56 pm

I wouldn't. Don't want to end up like that girl with those papers in her hand. After that video suicide rate went up drastically.

Would you?

hash - January 4, 2019, 1:47 am

It doesn't really matter though, does it? Your family is most important and talking to them for the remainder of your time alive must be the ultimate choice to be made.

Yep, mostly care about my family and not really what the world thinks about me.

I guess like 2013 indeed.

Uploader.sx - January 4, 2019, 1:53 am

In all seriousness.

- I would start by calling my parents if they are still around, some people aren't close with their parents, I'm not that kind of guy.

I would try to comfort them and tell them it's alright.

- I would text my brothers.

A call would take too long & knowing my brothers, they would probably try to save the day somehow even though there's no chance. That's how much we value each others.

- I would call my lifelong friend, he's been there for me all my life, so I think it's fair that I tell him about everything going on.

- Eventually I believe I would like to hear a song, something quiet and relaxing for my last few minutes/seconds, something I can just close my eyes to and let go.

not knowing you have 21 minutes would equal to any person just carrying out the task they are doing as normal at the moment in time so unless you somehow knew you had 21 minutes to live i am sure everyone would be just carry on as normal. IF i knew somehow i had 21 minutes and lets be honest you would be better knowing in advance you could plan something but having a bomb shell dropped on you like that would lead more towards Panic and fear so a normal person would waste at least half there time on fear alone, a priority would be say goodbye to my family.

so to everyone saying id do mass drugs etc its very unlikely, lets face it you all would shit on yourself as would i

I was trying to think about an answer and then i saw that ahahh this was exactly the reflection that i had lol

I think i would shit on myself,

BUT

Nobody can't even imagine their reaction till they face it.. ;)

?OMEGA? - March 13, 2022, 5:16 pm

Not really sure depends on where i'm at when i get the news.

Mizari - March 13, 2022, 5:19 pm

Not really much you can do with 21 minutes obviously.

Talk to loved ones.

BL4CK98 - March 17, 2022, 5:24 am

Call everyone and saying my goodbyes. Donating a my stuff to charities and making a last thread here saying my goodbyes. I will also give away all my accounts and phone number.

bdnswift - March 17, 2022, 6:43 pm

donate everything i have and find the closest vacation spot with family and just enjoy

PAWG - March 17, 2022, 9:10 pm

Statistically speaking in 21 minutes I don't even think you could say goodbye to everyone you know. But I'd try my hardest and die peacefully knowing I said goodbye.

Prince™ - March 17, 2022, 9:22 pm

Might as well just play some video games and die from there.

I-I - March 19, 2022, 9:09 pm

21 Minutes? That's not a lot of time lol, I'd prob just call my parents and tell them good bye. Not much else I can do

I'd spend my last minutes attempting to make high-quality posts and gain popularity on HackForums.

Would instantly put on my favorite music and die listening to the music that help mold me and carry me through life. While drinking a lot of alcohol & leaving the best written note I possibly can to all my loved ones.

I believe that is what I would do.. (or in a different order) There is an unlimited amount of scenarios, depending where I am located, what I am doing etc...

But that is what came to my mind first. (without thinking about it) so more genuine ofcourse

Mac Miller - April 2, 2022, 9:18 am

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

I'd post on FB that if I suddenly die in the next hour, it's because I compromised the Clintons.

anoncrab - March 2, 2024, 3:20 pm

Call all of my family, regardless of how much I hate some of them, and say my goodbyes.
