ya could be coming. not sure. just usually when someone as him gets 1k agc daily as he claims it never turns out well as not the first user here to sell mass amount of agc then turned out to be carded. and could be banned and closed soon or he take a vac ban

Might be a vacation ban? If he was vac banned his warning level should have been at 100%.

That being said, if an admin perma banned him for some reason, his account will show:
([closed@HF:])

RHCP - June 10, 2019, 5:29 am

His account isn't closed, it's temporarily banned. He was banned for abuse of the report function. While I still have no idea where he gets the cards, I've purchased tens of thousands of dollars since knowing him and only had one hiccup (a card was already redeemed when I received it) that was corrected. The gift card codes themselves correlate to physical cards as far as starting with AQ, however, proof of Goldsound actually having the physical card with a cash-purchased receipt is not what you are going to get if you decide to buy. Ban should be lifted in ~2 or so days.
