Thread: Blackhat methods/guides allowed? im not currently selling a blackhat Guide I just am wondering if it's allowed

It doesn't follow really under of the disallowed blackhat activity in the Help Docs nor under marketplace violations. Therefore I'm guessing selling blackhat guides are allowed?

I would advise against it. HF is for legal services and guides only.

Isnt it also for security which also involves black hat information??

Your question is too broad. Proper answer is maybe.
