Dopeington - January 8, 2019, 10:09 am

Hello everyone i need to make some extra cash to finish a few projects so im selling my rgh xbox360 and my regular xbox 360 slim forgot i cant post pics or videos so just pm me if you want to see the consoles

Details About the consoles

RGH XBOX 360

Falcon Rgh 2.0, With insta boot 12v fan mods and green leds inside xbox , The power button on the console illuminates blue and it comes with a 25 gb hdd and preloaded game files all cods from bo1 up to bo3, gta v and preloaded mod menus all ready on the console. also has ninja all you need is a kv and purchase some time. this console does not have the power brick. Asking price $80 i spent $160 to have this console made. Will also provide tracking to buyer the regular xbox360 slim has no power brick just av cables the disk tray dosent work either but it can still be used to download digital games and content and also to stream movies tv shows etc... would be good for entertainment purposes or would be good for someone who downloads there games from the microsoft store would be good for a fortnite player as well. Asking $35 you pay the shipping for this one price drop do to disk tray ! Tracking included as well.

Regualr XBOX 360 slim

Accepting pp or btc however i prefer btc pp is fine too will send shipping information through pp if you pay with pp only accepting payments from verified paypals as well
