You have no idea what your talking about, and you look like an idiot.

OP has sent me both pages, none of them have any fake likes or follows.

The pages simply haven't been posted on a while so they have extremely low engagement.

This isn't Instagram or twitter, Facebook pages don't work the same way.

Additionally, OP isn't charging an arm and a leg for these accounts, or trying to play them off as high engaging pages. If these pages received any more likes/comments then they would be going for a hella lot more due to the adbreaks monetization wave. Hes asking for $100 for a page that has 116k likes Edit: Also there isn't a single post with "6 likes, 1000 comments, 200 shares" tf are you going on about?
