Thread: Accepting Guest Post

S2TP - January 11, 2019, 11:06 am

Hello, I hope everyone is having a good day.

Im accepting guest post onto my website, the website is s2tp.co. Maybe if someone is in the same niche we could exchange guest post for whatever it is to increase our backlinks but to also add some quality to each other sites with those backlinks.

if anyone is interested please post a thread below, so we can talk on discord.

I WILL not promote any spam, hacking software, or anything of the sort but your own amazon affiliate links, websites, videos and any Safe content is allowed.

My site is growing pretty quickly with nearly 500 users per day and only a month old. It will be at thousands of users per day in the coming months, and will keep growing in pa, and da.

haha, I could use more guest-post, writing all this content by myself is becoming a hassle with my limited time schedule. A dog niche sounds interesting.

Yeah it sucks. I haven't focused on it for a while. Mostly kept it up to age it. Thinking of getting back into it and doing shopify at the same time.

Can I just make a post promoting my site, or does it need to be an article on a certain topic? I can exchange as well. My blog is in my signature. Let me know if you're interested.

Malikai - January 29, 2019, 10:21 am

We don't have the same niche but it wouldn't hurt, thanks for doing this.

We can work something out, and make it related some how. If its not related, Im pretty sure google wont like the link as much as if it was.

It's my personal blog. Most of the posts are webmaster/SEO/IM/domains related though.
