Then he deletes all the Discord conversation and blockes me on Discord.

Then he also blocked me on HF.

I think so too.

Hf's contract system seems like a serious joke.

Helps more scammers scam people more easily.

Yeah, until it doesn't. Most of the idiots here don't even use it properly.

I try make use of HF contract system whenever I can.

I saw few open disputes of his.

But went for deal since he had more Positive deals.

I had some instinct tell me not to send first but don't know what kicked in.Sent and here's the result of not trusting my instinct.

Dude's probably exit scamming as much money as he can. People review the user before sending money.

No matter how much he may scam it won't be enough to last him a his lifetime.
Karma hits such people real quick.

Yep,

got scammed by an asshole last month and still he isn't banned also he left a b rating for me which has affected my market profile.

Scums like these shouldn't be allowed, hope the admins will take care of this

No need to call HF's contract system a joke if it's simply exit scamming.
