Hey everyone!

I made a documentary about a homeless individual in the UK, Liverpool.

Feel free to give your opinion on it.

You can find it on Youtube by searching "Living Liverpool Homeless (Documentary 2018)" / That is the title of the documentary.

This was posted before, however, I would like a second opinion on it and see if there is any new / different views on it.

Very nice documentary, it is well put together and informative. The last clip was heartbreaking and so amazing, god bless him. Not many people would even look at these people, never the less talk to them. It's great that you're exposing their situation. It's unfortunate that homelessness exists, and I hope that each and every person struggling like him find hope & success.
