A friend of mine was getting counterfeit sneakers from Alibaba and looks pretty good. Check there.

ott-hon - January 14, 2019, 4:59 am there is a subreddit r/DesignerReps that is all about this. You will have to contact manufacturers on weechat and have some shipping quality check service that checks out the item before sending it to you.

Some things on loffer really look different IRL then on picture.. but when they have a phrase like "items can look different due to lighting/camera/how picture is taken" your money is basicly gone and you are not getting a refund.

If you're looking to buy a high-quality replica the price is pretty high, I recommend to buy a used one but at least it isn't a fake knightc0re - January 22, 2019, 1:05 am

You can use Taobao. Lookup /r/Fashionreps or /r/Designerreps

Craigslist is your best bet!
Depending on your location...?

podster - March 13, 2019, 10:38 am

Try Dhgate but go on YouTube to learn how to search for items your looking for. Good thing about that site that it works with escrow the seller dosent get payed until you receive and inspect the item so sellers are motivated to provide what's described and ship promptly so they can get payed.

Omniscient - March 13, 2019, 1:54 pm

We don't allow on HF.
