Facebook and Instagram both have the process explained on their website in the first place.

That's no secret. all it takes the effort and dedication to persuade them to give you the badge. and if you're good with that. you get it for free within 2 weeks or less.

I second this. Also I know how to get it fast but I do not have it yet because this is not that important for me right now...

As you have good B-rating send me your actual public instagram info. I am willing to share my tip with you before the payment take place and you get just what you want and if you fail then no payment for me. It could take a bit of time so let me know if you are not desperate.

Usually you have to have a news article (or several) about you or your IG.
