I suggest you read my thread.

There are countless sites out there. Don't rely on just one and don't expect everyone else to just give you places to make money on.

It's nothing wrong with kik. It just requires you to actually ewhore. I suggest everyone actually learns how to ewhore because with the way that Snapchat is cracking down, by the end of the year it might be unusable for ewhoring.

You can use a VPN to bypass the ban

HAHA. Even IF Snapchat gets fucked, next stop will be instagram. kik is full with timewasters, enjoy learning to ewhore on there.

Instagram is already full of ewhores and they are getting banned every day.

Thank you for your advice but I already know how to ewhore so I don't get as many timewasters as someone like you might.

I am starting to think all people saying Kik is dead just want to remove competition.

On topic, I was able to signup with VPN.
