Thread: Looking for a mentor \(will split earnings with\)

GEKSINO - January 18, 2019, 1:50 am

Hello, so I need to get 650€x2 (=1300€) before this summer (May/June) and im hardly struggling with Kik. Im looking for a mentor and im willing to split my earnings with him to reward him. I can do IG/Twitter aswell but not Snap. Kindly send me an MP with your contact details if you are willing to do this, thanks in advance !

I wouldn't even bother with KiK.

Move on to Snapchat.

You don't need to pay a mentor. All the information that you will ever need is right in this section. You just have to study it. And then start grinding.

Kik is still a very good money maker for those that know how to sell and how to filter. No offense to those that use Snap.

You should set up a twitter profile for your ewhore. You can get countless sales from twitter without much effort and you can shift those people over to Kik to really milk them.

And figure out what you are really selling. Hint: It's not really pictures and videos. When you figure it out, you'll start making the money you want to make.
