...So is it official? Is My Hero Academy really just a weird twisted prequel to One Punch Man and next chapter we will see Midoriya go bald?

SPOILER

The plot thickens, Midoriya got more powers he needs to control now, I really feel bad for Bakugo now lol.

"My Hero Academy" Lmfao

Nah but the worlds are totally different in my opinion.

One Punch man's threads are far more serious than that of My Hero Academia's.

Lmfao me too... like he already felt the pressure before. Now when he finds out about this it's going to be devastating. Is Bakugo the new Sasuke now?! What is going on?! Naruto learns Rasengan and all of a sudden Sasuke doubts his ability and goes dark side so is this Bakugo's future as well?

I definitely feel like some massive drama has to happen with that. Whether Bakugo quits school and goes solo thinking he doesn't need anybody and tries to become the strongest hero on his own or he goes dark side... something has to happen.
