Thread: Instagram Username Requests

Bally - January 22, 2019, 7:33 pm

$2,000 per request .

All payments in Bitcoin or Ethereum

Just private message the username you'll like to request along with mobile proof of funds with time stamp. If I can't get username I'll deny the request.

Middleman will hold funds until username in my possession then I'll swap & send.

All sales are final after you receive username I'm not responsible for anything once it leaves my possession.

Let's please keep all the off topic comments out, thank you.

Middlemen are typically used here regardless, the wording is a little confusing "Middleman will hold funds until username in my possession then I'll swap & send. All sales are final" So you want the funds first and then you're going to swap the name and if it gets turbo'd its not your fault?

Lol my fault .

Buyer sends money to MM , MM holds money until I get username. Once I get username I'll send logins to buyer after buyer log in, MM will release funds to me. End of the deal.

If I can't get the username MM release funds back to buyer.

Every customer have a choice if they want me to swap or if they going to swap themselves.

Is this through support? If so can you swap the handle to my desired account so there is no risk of turbos?
