Thread: I'm back after 2 years, selling a great money making methode

© ÉliXéd - January 25, 2019, 1:31 pm

Sometimes less is more. In this case I am selling a money making methode that is never sold on hackforums.

I will sell it to 2 people per country in europe max. Any admin or high trusted user can see my manual and can confirm that this is real.

Price: $350USD BTC or bank transfer. This includes everything. More details will follow tomorrow since I'm too tired right now. PM me if you are famous or whatever and I will send the instructions.

(Jan 25, 2019 03:41 PM)Friyie Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Elixed sent me a free copy to review. I will be completely honest.

This is not for everyone, in fact I'm not sure if there are members who would really go through with this method. It's greyhat method with basic concept of buy low, sell high. One good thing is that method is unique, but that's about all. I've talked with OP about the method and we both came to the conclusion that this does not involve initial investment and it's not as blackhat as I thought it was. Still, some effort will be required, but I'm sure OP will help as you as much as he possibly can.

Profit margin is solid as I said and if you manage to get this up and running I'm sure there is a lot of money to be made.

Being dutch is a BIG plus, simply because OP is dutch as well so he can explain you his own twists.

At the moment I will only sell it to people living in the netherlands until more research is done.

Cyam - January 25, 2019, 1:34 pm

If you're interested, I can review your method.
I'm from Europe so I can confirm if it indeed works.

This smells and looks so fishy after all these exit scams looking like this lately ?

This is not for everyone, in fact I'm not sure if there are members who would really go through with this method. It's blackhat method with basic concept of buy low, sell high. One good thing is that method is unique, but that's about all. It possibly involves physical labor and further investment. It definitely won't work in every country so I recommend if you decide to buy, make sure you're from Netherlands (as OP) or at least from near countries. There is solid amount of money to be made, but in my personal opinion it's not worth it.

My suggestion to OP, do not sell this method as you could run into problems with customers - rather keep it to yourself if it makes you money. I will not try this method myself because of possible legal problems, but I do wish you good luck with your sales. :)

Im Dutch aswell, and this, this made me VERY curious as to what it is.

I'm not sure, I will look for that later. For now I only sell it to people that live in or live close to the netherlands(or speak the language). If you speak Dutch then you can use this methode anywhere in the world and use in still in the Netherlands.

I will update this thread later this week with all countries that it should work in. Might also lower the price a little bit for the first customers.

Usually around 350 euro/week.

Saint - February 17, 2019, 9:23 am

OP has yet to come back to me with the method so i can verify it. I have found out the method in the meanwhile myself (most likely is the method OP sells).

Nope, it's completely different. (has nothing to do with buy/sell game cards or anything)

I'm not posting "income" proof. I have a fulltime job besides this. I could just take 2000 and make a picture for it. Payment proof for this is stupid to ask.

I don't really care if someone buy the methode haha, I did come back to HF and found out a great methode to make money while I was away. If I wanted to make quick money then I was not rejecting so much requests at the moment lol.

Not interested in dropshipping by the way.

It still works, adding me on skype is the quickest way to get in contact with me, I'm not daily on HF anymore.

Well he verified it some time ago, if a different high trusted member want to verify it again let me know.

Edit: At the time he verified it he wasn't know as a scammer. So, does this say anything? If a new person verify it now and he scams 2 months later we will have the same problem. I can't keep giving away this methode over and over again.

I'm not attacking you. I don't give a shit who vouches for your method. I'm simply saying that having a vouch from him is pretty much useless, and can hinder your future sales.

I know what you mean, however I don't think this is the right place to sell this here. Price is too high for HF I think. However I'll leave this thread open for one more week or so then I'll close it and keep the methode for myself. I'm still a little bit scared if I sell this methode that people are going to re-sell or leak this methode and that would be a massive downgrade on my income at the moment.
