Why would you deal with him in the first place and without a contract? Just look up his UID.

Edit: Not here to sales trashing just asking a quick question.

"This post has already been reported" Yikes sword getting triggered so fast that he didn't even read that the posts saying to use contract lol

1. It looks like you indeed started a contract with him, but he declined it.

<https://hackforums.net/contracts.php?action=view&cid=63107>

2. Do you have proof that you sent the money to him at the same range of time as the Contract? If so, you can open a Community Alert if you want, otherwise your claim is invalid.

3. Why didn't you wait till he accepted the contract?

1. He declined the contract after I sent him the money.

2. Yes I do have proof. He sent me his cashtag + the notes I should use in PM and I sent it.

3. I thought he had accepted the contract, I went to send without looking. I know that this is my mistake.

Here's proof that I sent the funds:

Edit: Zexi has told me to open a community alert against this obvious scammer. I will do this tomorrow, as it's past 12 here and I'm about to go to bed. Thanks to him for the help.

Yeah that's solid proof. I suggest opening a Community Alert asap to possible save other people of getting in the same situation.
