Practically no chance of getting pulled. This wasn't jacked or obtained maliciously. Bid noted.

And what's with such a huge drop in followers? <https://i.imgur.com/KaCAWLv.png>

Some of the users were botted, however a good amount of users were unfollowed that day as well.

Majority of the account is not botted and in solid standing.

Not looking for a premium for this account, and am open to any reasonable offer.

Edit: in response to the growth one of the posts did very well.
