Thread: [Luminate \[uid=3921080\] DONT BUY FROM HIM](#)

Sold me an instagram turbo on his sales thread @
<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5877816>

I bought a 3 month copy.

Proof of purchase:

Spoiler (Click to View)

The download in the link in file he sent me on autobuy wasn't an active link.

I didn't make a contract because of the autobuy feature and I was in a hurry.

I PM him telling him that I ordered and he replies with only one word "Scammer"

Spoiler (Click to View)

He eventually replies and gives me a download, I ran it and it was with full of errors and not working. He at this point just started ignoring me and won't reply at all.

I asked for a refund or working product and he refuses to answer now. Deal with absolute caution. Will remove this post if resolved within 24 hours. I am not dying for the $35, just sad to see he is scamming for such low amounts. Wanted to make a warning for others.

I thought it'd be fine over such a small amount. Oh well :/ Live and learn.

I'm more concerned with all his info (minus password) changing in the last week.

Messaged me too. His past deal history doesn't mean shit imo he hasn't explained anything relating to this other than "I've done xx deals in the past, why would I scam $15?" Idk.... why would he? Lol. Everything OP posted looks valid thus far.

Messaged me too. Honestly just wanted to warn community. Seems shady over such a small amount. Wanted to let others know so it doesnt happen to them.

Thanks for the warning. I never checked this user's trust scan, I definitely should start doing that. I delt with this user in the past and went first for two $119 exchanges. Not sure why he would scam over $15, but this is certainly interesting.

OP, I hope you get this sorted out. Good luck ?

$35, not $15. But I agree.
