metaldick - January 31, 2019, 10:36 pm

if they are death prisoner why not, as long as they have healthy organ, such a waste to be buried and left no purpose except feeding the maggot

GiraffeBear - January 31, 2019, 10:40 pm

Thats right fucked up. I don't agree with this at all. The focus on prison is SUPPOSED to be REHABILITATION.

Oh, Jesus. This is something I didn't need to learn about the world. Well, sure enough, there's a Wikipedia page on the topic. Apparently the people being executed and having their organs harvested are targeted for their belief in a "spiritual enlightenment" goal practice. This is just barbaric. Let's break it down. Killing and harvesting organs of people who believe in spiritual enlightenment. FFS.

Hell no, I do not condone this. Not even to doing this to people sentenced to rightful death. You just don't do this.

The Chinese government has shown to give out death penalty punishments for low end crimes purposely to harvest the perpetrators organs for the billion dollar organ transplant industry. Not only that, but they are doing it on-demand meaning they are doing these transplants while the prisoners are still alive and concious.

i wouldnt want to live in china lol

I'm Chinese and I'm not surprised. Medical Industry has always been shady...

Chinese government has 100% control of everything. They have seized multi billion dollar conglomerates in China just because they wanted to, and arrested the CEO. Imagine if the US Government just suddenly seized Google and declared it theirs. That's basically what China did.

What the fuck did i just watch, this is so wrong in many ways

Brooskiii - February 1, 2019, 9:48 am

Leave it to China to do some shit like this hahahahahahhaa

I heard from one of my teachers that one third of all kids are unregistered in China because of the 1 child rule.

Lots of these kids are then kidnapped and their organs are sold.

The families can't do nothing because the child basically does not exist.

China is such a messed up country.

That's so messed up man.

?rescent - February 1, 2019, 3:15 pm

China has a lot of problems, this just adds to that long list...

r4mbl3r - February 1, 2019, 3:16 pm

Not shocking. If people with connections need organs they will get them however they can.

HOMODIN - February 1, 2019, 3:17 pm

That shit's fucked up...I was just gonna go to bed but now I can't stop thinking of this, thanks for that...
