I put 3k noob ,

Would have to sell 12k just to make back what I put which I don't expect tbh.

Doctor. - February 1, 2019, 12:15 am

God damn, Vitani made a killing on that 93k bytes win. He had > 50% odds for 8000 bytes to 12x.

What a smart snipe L0000L

Lol goodluck man.

I set it to only 2 weeks rather than a 1 month mega so you don't have to wait THAT long to collect your winnings. Next time I get my hands on like 10k bytes I'll do a 1 month mega lottery. Haha

I personally don't have any clue what to use bytes for at the moment besides the games. I would buy and sell but my brain has never understood currency trading at a merchant level.

Yup best plan of action is to wait to see who has the most then ask them if they want to split the winnings if you buy the same amount of tickets and if either of you win then just split the winnings equally.

Ez dubs
