Thread: The Story of reBELLYus and The Future Of The Crew Terror.....

Benjamin - February 3, 2019, 10:16 am

As some of you already might know, I was a co-owner of Terror. I had a 50/50 investment with the owner co-owner reBELLYus. My personal experience was a bit strange. I would say we had a good relationship all up until yesterday when it was my time to sell my crew portion.

When you are a co-owner of a group you have a 50,50 say when it comes to decisions. It didnt feel like that. I had to remind him to let people know I was co-owner and had to inform him multiple times to add my name to the thread (<https://gyazo.com/2d5c7a854763517ae2329834d5c0f1f0>).

He was handling all the payments for the branding of the crew portion and just did as he said. It costed us 120$ exact for logo and banner. The issue began yesterday when I woke up to this message <https://gyazo.com/0edca7a94d23b8599477d9c2d96ef4c3>

He told me he got 450$ for crew portion and going to keep 50$ for re-branding. I took the payment and went on with my day. I saw his contract said 500$ <https://hackforums.net/contracts.php?action=view&cid=24507> which made me rethink everything. I had originally paid 550$ and got 450.

reBELLYus is now on a nice 1 month ban. The new co-owner of the crew is Flaws (<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2652579>). What I find really hypocritically is the contract he had with Flaws. The contract states

"If user Flaws. has any valid deal disputes against him that are not solved after 7 days, he will be permanently removed from the crew and will not receive a refund due to his own wrongdoing." (<https://hackforums.net/contracts.php?action=view&cid=24507>)

He tells Flaws he will be kicked if issue isnt resolved within 7 days meanwhile he is on 1 month ban for threatening me

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5936927&pid=58216234#pid58216234>

reBELLYus truly believes its his crew and he has the power to do anything he wants. Now I realized why everyone was so hesitant buying a portion of a crew since there can only be on leader. It would be nice to see if Flaws gets full ownership of the crew and reBELLYus is kicked for his wrong doings.

I'm shocked he did all this for 100$. <https://gyazo.com/04fb767678a8f322a512773c1c9ca3f9>

He told me on discord how he makes 120k and money isnt a issue for him.

Man I get that you are mad at him, but you already made the community alert and shit. This is just overdoing it, don't you think?

Please don't come at me with the "he did x, he did y" because I've read all about it. Why did you need to start a new thread?

Community alert was for threats for assignment. This is regarding the crew and him potentially being kicked from the crew. Two separate things. If you really read everything I'm sure it would make sense.

I had received 33 views on the thread and the first comment was from a person in the crew. Interesting.

I was underpaid and I was told I was going to see 2.5k profit in the long run. I actually lost money from the investment...

I invested 550$ for portion then paid 60$ for re branding so total of 610$. I was paid back 450$

I dont understand sir. If I can read correctly it says crew general discussions. Subject talks about the future of terror.

SIM-82498 - February 3, 2019, 12:17 pm

Didn't people say this would happen eventually lol

Benjamin - February 3, 2019, 12:19 pm

Looks like the thread was moved from "Group and Crew General Discussions" to "Marketplace Discussions". Didn't want it to be posted here. Asked staff to move back to the original section.

SoulZeh - February 3, 2019, 12:20 pm

This is more than just "Group discussion" though, you're talking about money and the group.

There were many gyazo the other day showing that you would accept $400 and a 3 page essay for your portion. Also, you losing on an investment is your fault and no one else's.

I didn't get the essay. I asked another reputable essay writing and I was given a much higher price than that. I asked for essay to be completed with 3 hours btw.

stop defending this idiot rebellyus its good op trashes his name as kid is a fucking idiot. needs to be exposed here as he runs a service after all. so if he has a huge deal returning ops chump change just tells you no one should deal with him. as can see in related threads this is not the first one where his character has been questioned and exposed for being a jackass kid "makes 120k" a year but cannot cough up the change.

Orgy and I had plans to bring the group back this year, but I'm not sure how large of a conflict of interest it'll be with a Crew also being named Terror. Will not be opening a group under any other name, so we'll see how things go when we both have time in a few months.

When I saw he had the same avatar I thought it was sort of odd but I never expected him to literally almost copy and paste what you had years ago.

This SS you posted - <https://gyazo.com/0edca7a94d23b8599477d9c2d96ef4c3>

It costs $9 to rebrand a crew. 500 bytes for a new userbar and 500 bytes for a new name/description. Where is he getting this $200 from? He's talking complete rubbish at this point.

Now here's what people were previously warning you about OP.

"When you are a co-owner of a group you have a 50,50 say when it comes to decisions."

No you don't. You have NO SAY whatsoever. The owner is the only one who has any say, being a co-owner doesn't mean jack shit.

Sorry you had to learn this the hard way. The new member who purchased essentially nothing will likely have the same problems as you in the coming months.

I remember that previous thread clearly. We all said the same thing but these guys didn't listen and went on to "invest". It's not an investment if you officially have no say in it, no matter what the owner says.

And they literally have no privileges at all. At least when people buy leadership of usergroups they get some powers (ability to add/remove members, become a mod of the private SF, actual recognition they're a leader on showgroups.php). Crews have none of that. I feel sorry for the unlucky bastard that purchased OP's spot.

He made a contract with new co-owner if he has dispute opened for more than 7 days he will be kicked. I think reBELLyus should be kicked permanently from terror and transferred over to Flaws. I love how he even kicked me out of the crew paid me less. Was treated like shit.
