I just dropped $20k on a 2016 R1 the other day. Couldn't bare the wait for saving for a 2017/2018 model, so I assured myself the 2016 model (same shape) will suffice.

Nowhere near the richest on the forum though. I remember looking back, and I think his username was Grizzlies or something; regardless had a $400k+ crypto portfolio and was from HF. I might be wrong on the username but I remember the thread was huge.

Just because we're using the forum does not mean the forum owner is the richest person here. I would imagine that it'd be the Saudi dude from Red Lions. Though people with a fuck-ton of money generally keep a low profile in this kind of community. I certainly would never be bragging on the internet about my bank account.
