Thread: Scammed by milw0rm™ 195020 for 205\$ AGC

xvconnor - February 10, 2019, 6:34 am

Was exchanging a 140, 25 and 40$ amazon gift card for 70% btc and he said he was in a game and said 5 minutes. Hour later he's pissed because i opened a contract dispute and wont pay me. You could call me super impatient but i am going based off his words and when someone lies, thats just not proper.

He's scammed a ton of people prior to the contract system being out.

This is something that I have a huge problem with. All of us know who the scammers are. The mods know who the scammers are. The contract system was supposed to weed them out but it seems like there are just as many, if not more.

Some of the scammers are getting banned but doesn't seem like enough of them are.

Dotexe - February 10, 2019, 7:14 am

OP he will get closed, don't worry it's a matter of time!

While i agree that the staff members are doing a great job, i know that most of the scammers that scammed via contract system won't get banned.

I used to give a suggestion, every scammer gets his information leaked on here. It won't prevent every scammer from doing such action, but will definitely decrease the amount of x members getting scammed.

Never liked milworm but always had successful deals with him, hopefully he can solve his problem.

Almonds - February 10, 2019, 8:32 am

Such petty amounts- won't be a surprise when he doesn't repay the people he scammed.

Best of luck OP

Geass - February 10, 2019, 8:44 am

He has already a DD thread before yours, why did you deal with him without even checking first?

This asshole tried to sell me a Spotify upgrade and insulted me after I rejected his offer.
Thank God I didn't deal with him.

Im not too concerned about it, just pointing out some poor ass thirdworlder

vyactor - February 10, 2019, 7:15 pm

Thats why you should always browse the DD database before dealing someone. You just didn't noticed about DD already going on him and you dealt with him.
You will get nothing back but you got to learn a lesson.
