Thread: I've never seen a Star Wars movie. Have you?

Xerotic - February 11, 2019, 12:49 pm

I have never watched any of the Star Wars movies in part or in full. Am I alone in this or are there others who have never seen ANY of the Star Wars films?

Omniscient - February 11, 2019, 12:51 pm

Xerotic came over to my house. We have some time to kill. I put the TV on and the conversation goes to Star Wars and he says he's never seen it. Never seen ANY Star Wars movie. I was thinking he was trolling me. Unreal. He's under the assumption that others also have not seen them. I call bullshit and dared him to make this thread.

Zack Fair - February 11, 2019, 12:51 pm

Haven't watched any of the newer ones, only episodes 1-3 the ones that people shit talk but I thoroughly enjoyed more than 4-6 with the shitty acting.

Riyu - February 11, 2019, 12:52 pm

I've never watched a star wars movie.

Neeeeeeeeeeel.- - February 11, 2019, 12:52 pm

Holy shit, how is this possible? Of course I've seen all of them.

Dope - February 11, 2019, 12:53 pm

Nah, you're not alone. I've never seen Star Wars.
I don't like/watch movies in general..

Lynx - February 11, 2019, 12:55 pm

I have never seen a Star Wars movie as well. Don't really like sci-fi movies.

Playboy - February 11, 2019, 12:55 pm

Yeah I have but it wasn't very interesting to me so I never actually watched the rest of the series.

Your lack of faith disturbs me.....

I'm disgusted at the fact you haven't seen any. I have the original 3 on vhs and dvd and bluray.

Yin Yang - February 11, 2019, 1:01 pm

I mean how old are you?

I wouldn't expect someone who's like 16 to have seen the lethal weapon series either
By the way, I'm talking about the original 1-6 Star Wars

Riyu - February 11, 2019, 1:04 pm

Can you fly me out to Vegas? I'll watch the entire series.

I watched a bit of Star Trek because of my dad though.

Doesn't this belong in the "Movies, TV shows & Videos" section? ?

Anyways, yeah i've seen just about every star wars movie up to date. I really do enjoy them. The older ones are always the best ones though.

MARIO - February 11, 2019, 1:48 pm

Nope, not even a glance (dead serious, I don't even know what it looks like). I really really really don't like Sci-Fi so it never attracted me.

I guess it's a bigger thing in the US than in Europe?

King - February 11, 2019, 1:52 pm

Same here. Never seen any Star Wars movie.

Terror - February 11, 2019, 1:54 pm

Never seen it in my life either and I feel like it's too late to watch because I'm old asf I was supposed to watch that when I was a youngin

Vitani - February 11, 2019, 1:57 pm

I know others that never watched a single Star Wars movie, and I get it if you're not into Sci-Fi, however I do believe everyone should watch the original trilogy at the very least. Iconic movies, groundbreaking for it's time and they passed the test of time.

Personally I have watched The original trilogy (several times), prequels and the new movies, as well as most of the animated shows.

Have you watched any of The Godfather movies? I can highly recommend those if Sci-Fi is not your thing.

How the hell are here so many people here who haven't seen a single Star Wars film? Especially when they're in active development again... I get it if there are a couple of oddballs. But nearly 50% of the voters? I feel like there's a bunch of trolls in the polls, voting no because it's cooler than admitting they have... At least, it's the only thing that makes sense to me!

Who Soup - February 11, 2019, 3:49 pm

I've seen most of them. Highly over rated; either that or I just don't like movies.

Bluffer - February 11, 2019, 3:53 pm

Some are going to call me a monster for this but I have never seen (any of):

- Star Wars
- Star Trek
- Harry Potter
- Pirates of the Caribbean

The last two were movies so popular when I was a kid, I don't know why I never watched them, HP was all the other kids would ever talk about. I imagine Star Wars was definitely like that at some point as well.

Omniscient - February 11, 2019, 5:22 pm

Honestly I was tempted.

You're going to compare Star Wars to Lethal Weapon? I mean, even if you're just 16 there are current movies and even video games.

I was confsued

Angelis - February 11, 2019, 8:18 pm

Although I have watched them, I admit Star wars was far from my favorite series. I am more a Trekkie than a Star wars fan.

I will admit however, since Disney bought the franchise out, I admit Ive lost interest in the series. They seem to have taken the series further than it really should have gone. Now its all "A star wars story" IMO they lost the plot to the series.

Also i used to have a roommate during college who was Star wars fan. He had every part of the room with SW print/design - cups/ t shirts/ blanket/ pillow / lamp

I found him asocial + retarded for other reasons than this, so him watching SW just made me stronger not to watch any SW movie lol

• Enlil Wolf • - February 12, 2019, 1:52 am

As shocking as it may be, I didn't watch any of the Star Wars movies until 2014.

However, I have watched each and every one of them since then including the spin-offs.

(I did watch both ways though - first in the original way like how it was released. First the original and then the prequel and the reverse in chronological order. I preferred the latter as it made more sense and gave it more character-development per-say. Anyways, if you do decide to watch it - you will love it. If you're a fan of Sci-fi that is)

Regards, Wolf ?

Elitas - February 14, 2019, 8:51 am

I've never even seen a clip of one. Not that I can think of anyways. I have absolutely no idea of what happens in them, the only things that spring to mind is jedi knights and Yoda but IDK if that's star trek as I commonly confuse the two..

I've also never seen Lord Of The Rings, Lion King, Wizard of Oz or any of the other so-called 'classics'.
