Thread: Kamala Harris calls for federal marijuana legalization

Playboy - February 11, 2019, 6:00 pm

Quote:Sen. Kamala Harris called for the legalization of marijuana at a federal level in a Monday morning interview, making her the latest 2020 contender to weigh in on an issue that has become front-and-center as the presidential campaign season begins.

"Half my family's from Jamaica," the California Democrat said, laughing when asked to respond to those who think she's opposed to legalizing recreational use of the drug.

I'm not American but a federal legalization would mean that marijuana is legalized through out the entire country, no matter what states think right?

Seems like a cool politician, will research her further.

Yes a legalization always brings a decriminalization. I'd like to see this Kamala Harris as your next president, seems like an intelligent woman who hasn't had everything fed to her with a silver spoon through life.

Well she slept with another councilman from her state and he even public said they had a brief 'affair' i don't know if this pay to play but.. at this point I don't care who the president is.

This is very good idea. It's scary and a non-sense to destroy people life for one marijuana gram. You will spend on closing it on jail and on court huge amounts, for food, jail, and will relapse.

LOL this has to be a joke. Nice catch. I had no idea as I try to stay clear of politics unless it has something to do with increased tyranny or something of importance. What a hypocrite lol...
