iNviZ - February 12, 2019, 4:46 pm

He did some great userbar work for us in the past and not sure if he goes by a different name?

Any help is greatly appreciated.
Thanks

You don't have the skills to be a fluffy Siberian.

I might still be able to reach him if necessary, I can definitely tell he was way ahead of his time.

But there is no saying if he's still that great, or if he moved on to something else.

but, if you need him, PM me and I'll try to find him :-)

Motusora - May 20, 2019, 10:07 am

he's long dead. there are few people here who are capable of doing your request

Baghead or the older FBN guys likely still have his contact.

If you haven't messaged "not baghead" yet I'd shoot him a PM.
