Been on the "free" day for 3 days, ignoring everything. 5 Days and still don't have the full method / Auto setup/ no support / no resources either as advertised so can't even set it up by myself. The method is okay'ish but easily saturated.

TOS states 3 days - 100$ or refund. Don't have my setup in over 5 days so yeah...

Not removing dispute until refund is provided.

Yeah bro he's a multi, he must of scammed like 50 people here.

$$95 \times 50 = $4,750+$

This is so horrible, damn this shit needs to stop though, its so bad this website has a shitty reputation when it comes to this and it's a matter of time before something happens to this site if this shit keeps going.

There are literally 4 people i already know who got scammed from him.

He has to be a multi also but from a high ranking member if someone can trace his IP or something... f*ck

Yeah bro this is the worst. He already has 3 threads on here against him, no way he gets out of this one but since it was in btc, seems we won't be getting a dime back.

Fucking hate this world sometimes.

So disappointed right now. I thought i was the only one here who couldn't get money with this method, but no. Asked him to help, he said he's on his "free day", now as i can see he changed his name and I'm so fcking angry now, wasted my money for this and i won't get that back. There were a lot of vouches on his topic, i was wondering about how is that possible... :/

Yeah it seems he did a BIG exit scam, and i know he's a multi of a big established user on here, cause he did everything correctly in order to have the advantage to about everyone who bought his method.

Someone needs to check his IP or get a mod here ASAP cause this shit is not cool and If Omni says something like we're all dumb for getting scammed or some shit like that, it won't fly, there needs to be at least some decency in this.
