Contract: contracts.php?action=view&cid=25815

I bought this method on Tuesday 12, acquired Professional Pack + Autosetup + Custom private resources = $ 170, the seller sent me a pdf with the method itself and a folder with resources and immediately disappeared, does not respond to my messages on Skype, or HF , as I talked with other buyers were also scammed, it is very unfortunate that there are so many scammers in this forum ?,that's why I request my full refund for the $ 170 because what he sold us was garbage, if the moderators need captures with more tests, PM and I will gladly send them.

PD: I put the links so because it is new, it does not let me publish

Yeah bro sorry for your loss, this is an epidemic, Omni needs to clear this shit up now, not for us since its too late but in general.

This site's reputation is gonna get worse over time if sh!t like this keeps happening.

Sorry for your loss bro :(

At least you used a contract, so maybe something will be done against him, considering the fact his method involves blackmailing which is not allowed on this board.

Yeah i highly suggest someone on here that cares about this website and has really good hacking skills to track his IP if possible.

This is going to far, he literally made around 4k off this :/

It's not fair for anyone who got scammed which should be more than 50 of us, damn.

I don't even know bro this shit is crazy and the fact that he made his account last month and changed his name 7 times within that time frame is a joke and a travesty to this website.

Someone has to take the fault for this shit cause no way in hell should this be allowed on any website, ANY!!

Username change doesn't mean anything all accounts have an unique id for life

Omni will surely check this out since contracts were used and by march all deals will be required to undergo a contract, HF is not at fault if you deal with the wrong people

No way am i expecting my money back but the other people bugging me are trying.

Just stopping here for now, not gonna respond to this topic anymore.

Thank you.

You guys are all insulting this website like there was a gun put to your head forcing you to buy his method. The only person to blame is yourself.

This dude was literally coming out with new products every week, i'm not surprised at all.

OP, make sure you dispute the contract as well so this shows up in the seller's marketplace profile.

He looks banned to me so not much you can do but wait.
