Account is barely a month old and a member of 2 usergroups, interesting. Whole account points towards a multi.

LoveOverFear - February 14, 2019, 2:02 pm

Yeah bro i was actually thinking of making a thread about this on the lounge and calling Omni out to clean this F*cking mess.

It's a multi from a very big account, he must of at least made $4k off it all, and he knew what he was doing from the jump fooling more than 40-50+ people and more who bought the method,

There has to at least be some drawback to this cause this is honestly a very big joke and no one seems to care right now.

All false advertisement, all bullshit. Someone on a high status on here needs to call this out ASAP!!

B4 world war 3 starts on here .. sheesh.

I've seen your replies to all 3 threads. Keep it up and you'll be banned or closed before the account at fault.

Omni is one person who has a lot to do on this forum. All deals here are done at your own risk. If he decides to take action (which will most likely happen since contracts were used), then he will.

Take a fuckin' chill pill on the shit talking. The dude hasn't been online since yesterday. It would be different if he was actively online and scamming, but he's not.

Things is all the people are hitting me up about this and I feel like it's my obligation to at least say something since i got this method also and what all the threads disputes say is true.

So I'll get banned for saying the truth and losing money? So its cool scamming people then and it's ok to do it when it's clear that he's a multi?

All i'm saying is that more people are gonna come and complain and i think a mod should take a look at this that's all.

And how im i shit talking?? I ain't calling him bad words? I know the rules, i at least add * on it.

BUT I'll take your advice and just stop here and see how this plays out in the background, just so much people hitting me up about this since I bought the method also.

Thanks.

He's RolexCollector's multi.

I warned like 3 staff members about him and no one did anything about it.

Now he scammed tons of members and got away with like $3k LMAO

I get it.

But posting in all the threads and basically shit talking how Omni isn't doing anything will be what gets you fucked. He runs the forum a certain way, if people start questioning him about it on multiple threads when he has rules in place for a reason (i.e., doing marketplace deals at your own risk), you're gunna be the one who gets the sour end of it. That's all.

I actually questioned it on one thread, not three. But again I get it.

Thanks.
