What are your thoughts regarding this interesting video? I'm not going to speculate whether or not they are genuine UFOs, but I will leave that up for you to decide.

I cannot find any other sources of this? Perhaps find and link us the actual livestream that has been reuploaded. So far from what I have concluded this is fake.

Edit, Found a few more sources by googling "NASA news: How ISS feed was CUT after 21 anomalies"

Can you update your title to make sure people know this is the old one from like 20 years ago.

If it has to do with space or NASA its fake.

The video feed is such a terrible quality (as is typical of conspiracy/ufo vids) that it's hard to tell even WHAT it is that's being recorded. For all we know, it could be the overflow drain of an espresso machine.

It could honestly be anything, and frankly, I rarely trust conspiracy theory sites as many of them (though not all) seem to be pretty far gone (insane) and serve to only scare the ignorant and gullible.
