Yeah I think that's what he's referring to. Never played it. Hold'em is perfectly fine and enjoyable for me so I'll stick to that.

PLOmaha is good (Pot Limit Omaha). Since Hold'Em got solved by AI and is a dangerous game to play now, a lot of the professionals have adjusted over to PLOmaha.

Oh, didn't know about it. Wow, hold'em being solved, I have to read on that, the process sounds fascinating. Haven't really heard of PLOmaha, is it hard to learn?

It's basically Texas Hold'Em with 4 cards. Your best 2 get chosen. Simple.

Oh, and it's pot limit usually. You can have PL Texas Hold'Em too. Just can't bet over the size of the current pot.

I'm a Hold Em player because I studied it, know the odds etc. 7 card stud is definitely a really fun game though.
