335i - May 21, 2019, 2:42 pm

1. Have you helped the eWhore community?

Haven't posted many public threads, but i'm active in various skype & telegram groups just giving advice and helping where I can. I also take a lot of information from these groups, so it's important to give back to them wherever possible.

3. How long have you been eWhoring?:
6 months

4.How much do you make averagely PER Day?:
$250-$300

5. Do you prefer FREE or PAID packs?:
I don't use packs, I have my own live models.

6. Why would you like to join this group?:

7. What's your experience?
I mostly focus on premium snapchat accounts. Currently i have 2 accounts running, the first one has 350 members, and the second one has 175. Both of these were started about 1 month ago. I also have dabbled in Kik selling in the past, but prefer snapchat nowadays.

I work great with others, and have ran a few accounts in the past with others and they have been greatly successful.

9. If you were mentor level would you mentor one of the noobies?:

Of course I would, I aim to help wherever I can. I would likely try and write a beginner's guide to share to the whole chat about basic stuff they can do to get traffic, etc.

I average about 150 adds per day, but can get 3k+ in a day with various traffic sources.

LOL!

You could easily move to a Jabber platform with OTR enforced and connect over Tor, and that way you'd be close to 100% secure!

Your right, they probably like collecting all your data/info.

3. How long have you been eWhoring?:

I was introduced in 2013, I was shown by a friend whos actually been on this forum awhile. It was tedious and a lot of work just to make 15$. It was on KIK. Gave that up pretty quickly, 2016 rolls around and I go to the same guy from before to get some weed lol and He re introduced it to me it again with a totally Dif strategy. I got fairly good at doing it and was making halfway decent money. I stopped doing it in 2018 because it was just a bad week and i felt ewhoring was done for so i stopped and got a job. Ended up getting in some Legal trouble, had Bond payment every month with no Job so I decided to Log onto my old Ewhore Snap and made 300$ within an hour. That was on Aug 13th of 2019 and since then I put in 10-15 hours of screentime every day

4.How much do you make averagely PER Day?:

It really depends but i always make 100 at least, But Avg 200-300$

5. Do you prefer FREE or PAID packs?:

Paid of course, Using a saturated pack is a waste of precious time

6. Why would you like to join this group ?:

Tired of working by myself and want to find a group of people who are respectable people who I can trust and only want a Mutualistic partnership

7. What's your experience ? (Beginner, Intermediate, Mentor or God)

I know i still dont know everything and there is always more to learn but i am more than capable of mentoring

8. How well do you work with others ?:

I can work great with others but I cant deal with trolls or people not serious, As long as everything is fair and dont feel like im being taken advantage of Im fine with others

9. If you were mentor level would you mentor one of the noobies ?

I dont mind helping someone new as long as they have a fair idea of what the end goal is. I dont like spoon feeding every little thing.

10. Do you get good traffic ?:

the last 2 weeks ive been doing very well on traffic, but id say its 50/50 on the quality of the traffic

11. How often do you ewhore a week ?

Literally all day everyday, im never not doing it. Unless im sleeping after staying up for 4 days straight XD

5. Do you prefer FREE or PAID packs?:

I currently work with free packs however as time goes on I will definitely reinvest the funds I earn into my work so I can receive paid packs to up my game.

6. Why would you like to join this group ?:

I'd like to increase my knowledge of EWhoring so that I can earn a nice amount of money to use for myself and others. Also, by learning more, I will be able to mentor other people on the forums and other members of the group as time goes on.

9. If you were mentor level would you mentor one of the noobies ?

Once I gain the experience that is required of a mentor, I will definitely look to give back and help those out who are less experienced than I am. I'm looking to help people just as hopefully the people in the group will help me.

10. Do you get good traffic ?:

5. Do you prefer FREE or PAID packs?: Paid packs but the ones you make yourself is the best ones.
6. Why would you like to join this group ? : I've been looking for an active discord group for a while now until I saw this Skype group and I think I would make a great fit into the skype group.
7. What's your experience ? (Beginner, Intermediate, Mentor or God) I would say between Intermediate to Mentor
