Nice thread, by the way. Shame I don't really know any of these, really got to start watching again and keeping up. Difficult when CR barely has any licences in your country and cba with illegal streams.

I did a really bad job of keeping up with the majority of stuff that aired last year as well.

Generally speaking I don't care much about these types of award shows, but was a bit salty that A Place Further Than the Universe got shafted for Anime of the Year.

Not sure if you've seen the series or not, but I always try to recommend people check it out.
