I was scammed by traveling-monk

I paid him to create 2 bots for me. I paid $280USD upfront back last year by western union. I havent heard from this guy since Christmas when he said he would render a full refund as its taken so long.

Now its time to warn others about this guy.

He creates bots for "Skyline" called Crack Attack and Social Riches.

He has changed his name in HF and in Discord many times and the most recent one today on discord.

He says he is from the UK and lives in Manilla Philippines.

His name is Dean Bman

He owns "TheBotEmpire"

Trying to message "Skyline" now does not answer an DM's related to this jerk.

If anyone deals with him please get the job done before you pay it.

If anyone knows his details please post it.

Peace out.

Unfortunately you need a contract for dispute. Take a read.

Yes I know, there was no contract.

I just want others to be aware of him.

Should have opened a community alert.

User also scammed me for $200 USD - and has since disabled my socialriches login. And #Skyline won't answer PMs regarding this guy either, just added me to ignore list.

Is SocialRiches or CrackAttack working for you, or did you buy a membership and the program quit working and no refund was provided?

No contract, no dispute.
