Thread: Snapchat vs kik - Catfish general discussion

Eyyaa Fellas, let's talk about Snapchat and Kik!, which one is your favorite and why, our pros and cons? did you think catfish could die one day due the saturation of people doing the same activity? What about the different payments platforms banning people (like paypal) if they know youre accepting payments for XXX related services? What are those things we need to improve to be a successful catfisher? Many traffic websites are full of trash, it's is hard to make money semi-legit and make your own profits? If you have time! feel free to participate ?

Once when I was cat fishing I found an older man who wanted to talk on the phone. I told him that I only had skype, and that he had to pay for my skype credit by sending me amazon gift cards. He was old(like 80), rich and didn't understand how things work... those are the best ones. I would get up to $360 per hour of skype calling him, no video on. This was in 2012. I want to get started back up but I don't even know how to use snapchat, lol. Also I doubt snapchat is where the rich clueless people hang out. Wouldn't it make sense to go fishing for people on sites like match.com and ourtime.com ? Seems like everyone on kik is a teenager or a sexual predator looking for teenagers, not prime fishing material.

Snapchat is best if you have a fake camera or know the "secret" Snapchat trick.

Snapchat is the future!

What is a fake camera and what is the secret trick? :D

Pretty please share! I'm a pre-app veteran who took a long break, looking to get back in the game! :p

I can't explain in details btu basically you can post stories without it saying from "Camera/Gallery".

It has something about sending the pictures to yourself on Snapchat. Then saving them to memories and uploading it to story. Not sure though.

Ok hmm, sounds complicated. Are the people you are cat fishing generally other young people? Have you ever tried outside of snap and kik?

I mean I can't say for sure but most people seem younger to me. It doesn't really appeal to older people with jobs to eWhore.

There are some methods outside Snap and Kik but I can't leech them here. Add me on skype!

Hey man, would you like to talk as well? looking for differente possibilities for traffic as this is the main problem I'm having kcoletti - February 27, 2019, 3:18 pm

That snapchat "trick" isn't hard to do at all lol.
