Thread: Was just almost scammed by WaltherHWhite aka DutchAnonymous

Rorschach. - February 19, 2019, 1:25 pm

I posted a thread asking for IG recovery

WaltherHWhite PMs

and we talk on Discord. I agree to his rate and tell him hey once you have a hold of the account, DM me or show me proof you've gotten into the IG account so I can send BTC then WaltherHWhite tries to bait me into paying him without even showing any proof and then says my deal sounds sketch and I need other vouchers from HF. Mind you this is the only time I've done business on HF and have been here for over a year now. I used to pay for service with H2H h2hgroup back in the day. I respect all that provide service, even offered long term consistent work to WaltherHWhite AKA DutchAnonymous if he could do good on this first deal.

Soon as I asked for proofed he blocked me and then I come on here and see how many disputes he has where he's clearly scammed others. Just giving warning to others.

I am giving WaltherHWhite a chance to explain himself and clear up this accusation and still do business but I want it on record of what transpired.

IF ANYONE ELSE wants to take me up on offer with contract PLEASE PM.

Shame really because we're doing legit business and could have paid him twice as much. Some people just aren't smart and out for a quick buck and lose out on bigger $

You have the proof that he's a scammer but if you want to prove it once and for all, tell him to use a trusted middleman. If he says no to that than he's 100% scamming.

I don't really have anyone here i know to trust as a middle man but nonetheless valid point.

Noted! and it doesn't matter now I found someone else to do the job who actually is legit. Sucks for him. Now he's exposed and not getting paid.
