Hello HF members,

I am a huge ink addict, got around 15 tattoos spread over my body.
Some are large, others are smaller ones but I love them all!

Anybody here got some dope tattoos or tattoo ideas?
I'm planning on getting a new one in two weeks.
When I'm upgraded I'll add pictures to this thread as well!

It's Icarus and Daedalus, feel free to read up on the story for it's literal meaning. (the story does convey a lot of messages which partly goes with what is say below)

It does have meaning to me but it's many things in 1 tattoo. I haven't told anyone because I am not the type to talk about personal and meaningful things. I know what they mean to me and I keep it at that.

You don't own anybody an explanation for a tattoo that you put on your own body period.

I have a medium sized tattoo on the left side of my neck,

- A few inch design on the back of my neck where the spine begins.
- Both forearms.
- Right upper arm
- Over my heart

I'm definitely not done getting tattoos, and give it a good year before I get a new one to make share I want it. Absolutely none of mine are stock and are unique to me. I have a friend I spoke to earlier who's giving me a sample of her handwriting for my next one pretty soon.

I got one on my forearm as well, and my whole back full with a special made design. I've got some on my leggs, knees, feet, neck etc.

Not even a little bit done lol.
