Thread: Adult CPA Brag

This is not a BIG BRAG, but rather something that made me happy.

Today I had a first PPS offer completion in my adult CPA journey.

Only going to grow from here now that I'm motivated. Nothing is impossible, so I'm going to set my goal to $120 (3 conversions) per day.

=====

Btw, this is my total payout up to the date - I did my personal method that turned out to be disallowed by offer's ToS after which I was ready to give up completely.

In this period I had like $40-50 daily.

Where did you start with CPA If you dont mind me asking, im aware this isnt a tutorial or a guide but a simple response to point me in the right direction would be appreciated, ive been looking into doing CPA For ages, looks promising.

Enjoy your rewards :)
