Dont. You will end up banned.

Doesn't mean HF won't ban blatant scammers if there's solid enough [on-site] proof or an admission, it's just rare for staff to get involved. Definitely worth still opening a Deal Dispute just in case.

there was a conversation between two men and this is something i will remember forever. it went like this:

guy: how are you not ashamed of doing this?

millionaire: because being rich means having no shame.
